GTA Wins Outstanding Service Award from the Competitive Carriers Association

Tamuning, Guam, Friday, September 30, 2022– GTA received accolades after being selected by the Competitive Carriers Association (CCA) as a winner of its 2022 Annual Achievement Awards. Award categories this year include Outstanding Achievement, Neko Hamlett Associate Member of the Year, and Outstanding Service.

The local telecom company received the Outstanding Service Award at the CCA’s Annual Convention in Portland, Oregon, on September 29. The award is presented annually in recognition of a company’s notable work and honors carriers across the United States for their commitment to their community and contributions to the wireless industry.

GTA Gives philanthropic initiatives include:

Empowered by GTA, a program that provides connectivity to non-profit organizations

Team Up for Guam Employee Volunteer Program

GTA Youth Leader and Girls Code to empower the youth in the community

An annual Giving Tuesday Holiday Campaign for Charity

GTA Village Mural Project, in partnership with local artists, to create vibrant neighborhoods

Steve K. Berry, President and CEO of CCA, says, “Our members continue to innovate and share the latest wireless products and solutions showing true commitment to their customers.

Congratulations to this year’s winners who continue to drive the future of the wireless industry and support their communities – and beyond – with programs and services that bring connectivity to regions all across the country.”

CCA members reviewed and selected the winners and honored awardees at the annual convention this week. The CCA is the leading association for competitive wireless providers and stakeholders across the United States.
