Fireman Sam comes to the UAE for the first time ever at The Theatre, Mall of Emirates

A family-friendly adventure you don't want to miss!

Dubai, UAE - Popular British children's TV series Fireman Sam, arrives in the UAE for the first time ever, at The Theatre, Mall of the Emirates on Saturday 4th and 5th March 2023. The program which has entertained kids across the globe with the titular character's heroic antics has now been adapted into a live stage musical, performed by two former firemen.

This beloved show by Mark Thompson Productions, one of the leading family entertainment producers in the UK, promises a world-class performance with fun and adventure for kids. The show is packed with lots of singing, dancing, and exciting action that will keep the little ones engaged from start to finish.

Tickets can be purchased now through Fever, the leading entertainment discovery platform, helping millions of people every week to discover the best experiences in their cities, with a mission to democratise access to culture and entertainment in real life. The tickets are priced for 135 AED for all ages, except children under 2, who can attend for free.
