

Kautex exhibiting at the Battery Show Europe 2023 in Stuttgart

Kautex is delighted to attend the Battery Show Europe at Messe Stuttgart in Stuttgart, Germany, from 23 - 25 May. You can find us in Hall 6, Booth D66.

The company has several new innovations on display that are thoughtfully designed to answer new challenges that OEMs are facing as they convert to e-mobility.

Products on display include:

- The new Pentatonic thermocomposite underbody protection, designed to prevent mechanical intrusions into the battery housing an emerging challenge for OEMs.
- A two-phase immersion cooling system, an advanced solution for thermal management developed in an integrated design process.
- The Kautex demonstrator will be on display outside the convention hall. Our demonstrator vehicle is equipped with a fully-functioning Pentatonic battery system that has logged thousands of kilometers.

Members of the Kautex team will be on-hand ready to answer questions regarding our Pentatonic Battery System.

Please join us in Hall 6, Booth D66, and for more information on Kautex, visit www.kautex.com
