“Candlelight: 100 Years of Warner Bros.” to Debut at the Historic Warner Bros. Studios Lot in Burbank on April 6

Tickets are now on sale for the first performance of the commemorative international concert series honoring Warner Bros.’ 100-year anniversary, coming to 100 cities worldwide

Los Angeles, March 9th. As part of the yearlong centennial celebration for the 100th anniversary of Warner Bros. Studios, Warner Bros. Discovery Global Themed Entertainment and Fever, the leading entertainment discovery platform, announce today they'll be kicking off their commemorative international concert series on April 6th at the iconic and historic Warner Bros. Studios lot in Burbank. "Candlelight: 100 Years of Warner Bros." will feature performances and score tracks from some of the studio's most celebrated films and television series performed on the very same grounds where many of the productions were made. Tickets are now on sale.

Warner Bros. is home to some of the most iconic films and television productions in Hollywood history, including Casablanca and FRIENDS and continues to be an important part of the entertainment industry today. Nestled in the heart of the studio and recognized as one of Hollywood's premier screening facilities, The Steven J. Ross Theater is a beloved industry landmark and not regularly accessible to the public. On April 6, the theater will be transformed into a beautiful candlelit setting with live performances from a string quartet, paying tribute to Warner Bros.' illustrious history and 100 years of incredible storytelling while offering guests a one-of-a-kind musical experience.

"Candlelight: 100 Years of Warner Bros." will feature a range of music from the studio's past and present, including songs from classic films such as The Wizard of Oz, Casablanca and Singin' in the Rain, as well as music from contemporary favorites like Harry Potter and FRIENDS. With an unforgettable lineup at this exclusive venue, the concert at Warner Bros. is one event that no fan will want to miss.

"It's an incredible honor to be able to come together and celebrate the studio's 100-year anniversary with a special and unique concert series on the historic Warner Bros. lot - home to so many beloved films and television series," said Peter van Roden, SVP, Warner Bros. Discovery Global Themed Entertainment. "We are proud to be part of this remarkable milestone and look forward to sharing this one-of-a-kind experience with the fans to honor the past, present, and future of Warner Bros. in one unforgettable evening."

"It gives us tremendous pleasure to be given the opportunity to host the first performances of this special Candlelight international concert series in the heart of the studios where many of the productions in our setlist were made", said Ignacio Bachiller, Co-Founder & CEO at Fever. "We are excited to see this unique venue transformed by our candlelit atmosphere while offering fans a different way to listen to iconic music from Warner Bros.' history".
