Fever's international Candlelight concert series arrive in Ipswich

Following the success achieved in more than 100 cities worldwide, the live, multi-sensory musical experience will take place in outstanding locations in Ipswich starting in September.

Ipswich, 26th June 2023- Fever, the leading global live-entertainment discovery platform, brings the Candlelight Concerts to Ipswich with a series of special performances, kicking off with concerts in Tribute to Queen, Hans Zimmer's Best Works, Vivaldi's Four Seasons and more. This expansion to the region comes on the heels of the experience's success, having delighted audiences in more than 100 cities worldwide and across a plethora of UK cities.

The first concerts will see St Peter's by the Waterfront illuminated by thousands of candles, allowing viewers to fully immerse themselves in an adapted program from September 29th, inviting a broader audience that might have never considered a classical music concert before to connect with the most iconic pieces of the greatest composers and listen to the top hits of well-known artists in a different way.

Candlelight Concerts are a series of original music concerts created by Fever aimed at democratizing access to culture by allowing people all over the world to enjoy live music candlelit performances played by local musicians in various stunning locations illuminated by thousands of candles. Candlelight was initially conceived as a classical music series with concerts featuring works from the greatest composers, such as Vivaldi, Mozart, and Chopin. Now, the ever-growing list of programs includes a wide variety of themes and genres, including tributes to contemporary artists like Queen, ABBA, Coldplay, and Ed Sheeran, as well as shows dedicated to K-Pop, movie soundtracks and many more. This multi-sensory experience has also evolved to feature different elements, such as ballet dancers or aerial performers, as well as other genres, such as jazz, soul, opera, flamenco and more.
