Neon Brush: a retro-futuristic pop-up painting workshop is coming to Cardiff

Following its success in various cities around the world such as Paris, London, Sao Paulo, and Singapore, The Neon Brush - Paint in the Dark Art Experience is coming to Cardiff for a limited time, starting from March 12th 2024.

Cardiff, Tuesday 19th February - This March, a pop-up neon painting workshop in a unique retro-futuristic atmosphere arrives in Cardiff. Launched by Fever, the leading global live-entertainment discovery platform, Neon Brush will immerse participants in a black-lit setting, where they will have the opportunity to craft their own masterpiece while enjoying a glass of wine or a mocktail.

During this 90-minute immersive workshop, participants will unleash their creativity while guided by an experienced artist. All necessary materials, including brushes, paint, and aprons, will be provided. Neon Brush promises a sense-stimulating experience. Hosted at District, the pulsating heart of music and dance in Cardiff, participants can sip and savor delectable wines (non-alcoholic options are also available), as they allow the black-lit, fluorescent ambiance and upbeat pop sounds to inspire them. Once the workshop concludes, they are welcome to unwind further and enjoy some more drinks from District's beverage selection.

Whether a casual gathering with friends, a team-building activity with colleagues, or a distinctive weekend escapade, this innovative experience promises to transport participants to a captivating world brimming with creativity.

Tickets are available for purchase now for £31.00 per person on the official website HERE
