Neon Brush: a retro-futuristic pop-up painting workshop is arriving in Brighton in April

Following its success in various cities around the world such as Paris, London, Sao Paulo, and Singapore, the Neon Brush - Paint in the Dark Art Experience is now coming to Brighton for a limited time starting from April 5th 2024

Brighton, March 6th 2024 - This April, a pop-up neon painting workshop in a unique retro-futuristic atmosphere arrives in Brighton Launched by Fever, the leading global live-entertainment discovery platform, Neon Brush will immerse participants in a black-lit setting, where they will have the opportunity to craft their own masterpiece while enjoying a drink.

During this 90-minute immersive workshop, participants will unleash their creativity while guided by an experienced artist. All necessary materials, including brushes, paint, and aprons, will be provided. Neon Brush promises a sense-stimulating experience. Hosted at Club Revenge, one of Brighton's biggest and most popular party venues, guests can sip on a glass of wine or a refreshing beer (non-alcoholic options are also available), as they allow the black-lit, fluorescent ambiance and upbeat pop sounds to inspire them. Once the workshop concludes, attendees are welcome to unwind further and enjoy some more drinks from Club Revenge's extensive beverage selection.

Whether a casual gathering with friends, a team-building activity with colleagues, or a distinctive weekend escapade, this innovative experience promises to transport participants to a captivating world brimming with creativity.
