Fever partners with Netflix to bring exclusive Bridgerton Candlelight Concert to Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh and Bath

Featuring hits from the TV series played by a local string quartet, this unique live multi-sensory musical experience will transform the Manchester Cathedral, St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, Birmingham Cathedral and Guildhall with a captivating setting

Netflix, Shondaland, and Fever have partnered to bring an exclusive Bridgerton-themed Candlelight Concert series to Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh and Bath. This unique live multi-sensory musical experience will light up the Manchester Cathedral, St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, Birmingham Cathedral and Guildhall with thousands of candles transporting guests to the Regency-era in England.

From Billie Eilish's Bad Guy, thank u, next by Ariana Grande, Give Me Everything by Pitbull, Afrojack, Ne-Yo and Nayer to Cheap Thrills by Sia, performed by a local string quartet, the event promises an unforgettable evening in a captivating setting. This exclusive series will be hosted in selected cities worldwide with limited tickets available.

Candlelight Concerts are a series of original music concerts created by Fever aimed at democratizing the access to classical music. This innovative format represents a unique live musical experience through a varied offer of programs to meet all tastes, played by local musicians, in emblematic venues, with the space and performers illuminated by thousands of candles. Candlelight invites a broader audience that might have never considered a classical music concert before to connect with the most iconic pieces of the greatest composers and listen to the top hits of well-known artists in a different way.
