Neon Brush: a retro-futuristic pop-up painting workshop is coming to Exeter

Following its success in various cities around the world such as Paris, London, Sao Paulo, and Singapore, the Neon Brush - Paint in the Dark Art Experience is now coming to Exeter for a limited time starting from April 11th 2024

Exeter, Thursday 28th February 2024 - This April, a pop-up neon painting workshop in a unique retro-futuristic atmosphere arrives in Exeter Launched by Fever, the leading global live-entertainment discovery platform, Neon Brush will immerse participants in a black-lit setting, where they will have the opportunity to craft their own masterpiece while enjoying a glass of prosecco.

During this 90-minute immersive workshop, participants will unleash their creativity while guided by an experienced artist. All necessary materials, including brushes, paint, and aprons, will be provided. Neon Brush promises a sense-stimulating experience. Hosted at The Terrace, Exeter's ultimate party destination, participants can sip on a glass of bubbly (non-alcoholic options are also available), as they allow the black-lit, fluorescent ambiance and upbeat pop sounds to inspire them. Once the workshop concludes, they are welcome to unwind further and enjoy some more drinks from The Terrace's extensive beverage selection.

Whether a casual gathering with friends, a team-building activity with colleagues, or a distinctive weekend escapade, this innovative experience promises to transport participants to a captivating world brimming with creativity.

Group bundle tickets are available for purchase now from £24.00 per person here.
