A multi-sensory musical experience showcasing classical music to every taste, including tributes to the greatest composers and best hits of contemporary artists

December 2022 - Leading entertainment discovery platform Fever will take its critically acclaimed Candlelight Concerts series on tour this summer, dazzling the east coast's top holiday destinations with a stunning selection of multi-sensory musical performances.

Kicking off in January 2023, the first of the Candlelight Summer Series concerts is scheduled for January 14 at the Byron Bay Theatre, Byron Bay, with a second concert confirmed for January 19 at Avoca Beach Theatre on the NSW Central Coast.

After delighting more than 100 cities worldwide in various spectacular locations, the Candlelight Summer Series aims to fulfil Fever's mission to democratize access to culture and classical music, boost visibility for local musicians, and celebrate our unique Australian venues.

Illuminated by thousands of candles, each performance will feature a local string quartet ensemble playing tributes to some of the most popular classical and contemporary artists of our time. Both the Central Coast and Byron Bay concerts will pay homage to Hans Zimmer's greatest film scores, including Circle of Life from The Lion King; Cornfield Chase from Interstellar; The Star Wars Medley; The Dark Knight Suite - No. 3; and Time from Inception.

Plans are currently underway to launch further open-air and summer city concerts along the east coast's bounty of holiday destinations.

Previous Australian Candlelight Concerts have included Film Scores at SEA LIFE Melbourne Aquarium; Best of Aretha Franklin at The Grounds of Alexandria, Sydney; Orchestra: Best of Joe Hisaishi at Freemasons Hall, Adelaide; Tchaikovsky's Swan Lake at St. John's Cathedral, Brisbane; and Best of Fleetwood Mac at Wesley Uniting Church, Perth.
