

“Harry Potter: A Yule Ball Celebration” to make its Australian debut in Sydney this winter

Step into a unique celebratory gathering that only the Wizarding World can inspire at Paddington Town Hall

Sydney | May 2023 - ‘Have you ever dreamt of attending the Yule Ball?’ This winter, you are invited to the unique celebratory gathering, Harry Potter: A Yule Ball Celebration, coming to Australia for the first time on July 7, 2023.

Following successful tours through Milan, Montreal, Houston and Mexico City, it’s now Sydney’s turn to enjoy an evening full of festivities as the interactive experience brings its magic to Paddington Town Hall.

Launched by Warner Bros. Discovery Global Themed Entertainment and Fever, the leading entertainment discovery platform, Harry Potter: A Yule Ball Celebration is a spellbinding party where guests will be able to participate in iconic and beloved moments inspired by J.K. Rowling’s magical stories and scenes from the Harry Potter film series. The experience features several Wizarding World elements and celebrates the Yule Ball moment in a whimsical, elegant way. Although not mandatory, guests are encouraged to dress up in their best Wizarding World attire.

With the many different offerings at the celebration, from interacting with hosts to various photo opportunities, you don’t even need to know how to dance in order to partake in the experience and have fun. Throughout the event, attendees can enjoy Hogwarts house challenges, delicious food and beverages, as well as a market featuring branded merchandise.

For a limited time, the heritage-listed Paddington Town Hall on Sydney’s Oxford Street will light up in an enchanting, festive environment that promises to bring guests together in a celebration to remember. Engaging hosts will get the ballroom going with fun, celebratory interactions happening throughout the entire experience.

Tickets are available now at harrypotteryuleballcelebration.com. Quantities are limited.
