Melbourne | 27 October 2026 – After huge success in London and Sydney, and for the very last time in Australia, Banksy Limitless - a bold curation of certified originals, rare works and exclusive reproductions - will open at the Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre (MCEC) on November 25, 2026.

Tickets are available for purchase HERE.

Presented by Muse Entertainment and Events in partnership with Fever, Banksy Limitless is a body of work that fuels global conversation and amplifies Banksy's voice beyond walls, cities and borders. Featuring more than 250 works, Banksy Limitless redefines street art within a gallery setting, showcasing a multisensory exploration of Banksy's art, ideas and unmistakable cultural impact.

Located on the banks of the Yarra River in the vibrant South Wharf precinct, the MCEC provides an iconic setting for the Melbourne season of Banksy Limitless. Visitors will be immersed into the elusive artist's world, unearthing the untold stories behind his iconic works along with a dazzling hologram installation that introduces a futuristic dimension to Banksy's signature satire.

In a global first, the exhibition will also feature original photographs of Dismaland by British photographer Barry Cawston. Capturing Banksy's "bemusement park" in Weston-super-Mare, the images document the event's surreal atmosphere and subversive spirit. Cawston's photographs became the official record of Dismaland, and Melbourne audiences will have the rare opportunity to experience the project through the lens of the photographer who documented it.

Delivered with razor-sharp wit, defiance and social commentary, Banksy's art continues to interrogate culture, politics and human rights - as urgent, disruptive and relevant as ever.

Aligning with Banksy's commitment to humanitarian causes, a portion of proceeds from Banksy Limitless will be donated to the M.V. Louise Michel organisation, an independent high-speed lifeboat that rescues migrants in distress across the Mediterranean. The vessel was originally purchased with proceeds from a Banksy artwork and continues its mission today.
