

Laufey curates Candlelight®: A Very Laufey Day, a special concert taking place in Melbourne on August 23

The Grammy winning artist has personally selected the repertoire for this exclusive Candlelight series, bringing her most beloved songs to life through the intimate sound of a live string quartet

Australia, Melbourne| August 2026- Candlelight® presents Candlelight: A Very Laufey Day in Melbourne, a new limited-edition concert created in collaboration with Grammy-winning artist Laufey, taking place on August 23.

This exclusive concert celebrates Laufey's unique musical universe through an intimate live concert experience. Surrounded by thousands of candles, audiences will hear a repertoire personally curated by the artist herself, performed by talented string quartets in some of each city's most spectacular venues.

Blending jazz, classical music and contemporary songwriting, Laufey has built a devoted global following thanks to her timeless sound and emotionally rich storytelling. For this special collaboration, she has handpicked some of her most celebrated songs alongside tracks from her latest album, creating a programme that reflects the evolution of her music and invites fans to experience it from a completely new perspective.

The concert programme includes beloved favourites such as From the Start, Valentine, Dreamer, Falling Behind, Promise, Lover Girl, Silver Lining, California and Me, Goddess, Lovesick, Too Little, Too Late, Snow White, and Bewitched, as well as songs from her latest album A Matter of Time, all reimagined in Candlelight's signature classical format.

Since its launch, Candlelight has redefined the live music experience by making classical music more accessible while offering audiences new ways to connect with the music they love. From tributes to legendary composers and contemporary artists to official collaborations with global brands and franchises, Candlelight continues to create unforgettable live experiences in extraordinary settings.

A Very Laufey Day offers fans a unique opportunity to experience Laufey's music in an entirely new way, through the warmth, intimacy, and emotion of live strings illuminated by candlelight. This limited special edition will take place in select cities around the world, including London, Chicago, New York, Melbourne, Seoul, Berlin, Washington, D.C., Paris, Orlando, and Boston.
