BetUS to Unveil New Weekly NFL Show Hosted by Specialist

BetUS Sportsbook is becoming a major player in attracting talent to its media team. The company's latest coup will send shockwaves across the sports world and get tongues wagging throughout the industry when we welcome aboard a respected NFL news veteran who will be hosting a weekly show right here at BetUS.

A Familiar Face in NFL Coverage Is Coming to BetUS

BetUS is about to steal headlines after reaching an agreement with an NFL specialist with more than 10 years of experience in the game.

Although we can't disclose the name just yet, we can reveal that this specialist will be hosting a live NFL betting show featuring game previews, matchup breakdowns, guest interviews, and data-backed NFL picks and predictions throughout the remainder of the 2026 season.

This is must-see TV for any NFL fan, and it is all happening at BetUS. Our new NFL colleague will also be writing an accompanying column that will convey thoughts and analysis on the weekly matchups and offer fresh perspectives on the league and the players who make it America's most popular sport.

BetUS will be announcing the name of this mystery host on Monday, November 9th and airing the first NFL show, premiering on November 11th and 12pm ET. It is guaranteed to be an action-packed program filled with the sharpest takes on all the NFL games scheduled for that week. Special guests will also join the show and share their insights on everything from sides to totals to prop bets.

This is just the latest in one of many star-studded broadcasting lineups that include popular sports betting shows like Crossing Lines, found exclusively at BetUS from noon to 1:00 PM,

Monday through Friday, with the charismatic Donnie Rightside, who has already interviewed NFL Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk this season.

BetUS continues to diversify and expand its programming to give our viewers informed opinions on all the major sports and topics of interest. The newest member of our team will be instantly recognizable and introduced soon enough, where they will be bringing years of expertise and industry connections to our airwaves.

We invite everyone to turn on and tune in because this seasoned NFL specialist will not only be hosting this brand new show for BetUS but will also be writing an accompanying column that will fill in any blanks and educate our readers about the weekly NFL matchups throughout the season.
