Grace, Glam, and Glory

The Miss Universe 2026 Diamond Edition marks the pageant's 75th anniversary and will begin with the National Costume Presentation on Saturday, November 21st, followed on Sunday by the preliminary competition. The grand finale will be held on Tuesday, November 24th, when an international audience will witness the crowning and coronation of the new Miss Universe.

Those who prefer to bet on entertainment will find a home right here at BetUS, as we proudly offer novelty prop markets found nowhere else. Our Miss Universe 2026 betting odds are already available on all of the major competitors, allowing pageant fans to use their knowledge to pay off when the winner is announced.

We also urge everyone to check out our Miss Universe news section, where our analysts discuss the contestants, their chances of winning, and share breaking news that could affect the outcome.

According to the current odds at BetUS, the top five Miss Universe favorites include the following spectacular contestants:

- Mia Dio (Miss Cuba) +250 – A native of Miami, Florida, whose Cuban roots run deep, Mia was a finalist in 2025 and was recently crowned Miss Universe Cuba 2026, setting the stage for her return to the competition as one of the betting favorites.

- Dominga Lopez (Miss Chile) +250 - Miss Universe Chile 2026 hails from Viña del Mar and is a journalist, model, and actress who has launched her own anti-bullying campaign, "Atrevete a ser Tu" (Dare to be You).

- Jennifer Barreto (Miss Puerto Rico) +300 – Miss Puerto Rico holds two master's degrees and is employed by the US Department of Defense, where she focuses on community well-being and anti-violence initiatives.

- Bea Millan-Windorski (Miss Philippines) +350 – A University of Wisconsin–Madison graduate in History and International Relations, Bea was crowned Miss Earth USA 2024 and Miss Earth Water 2024, where she now champions environmental conservation and LGBTQ inclusivity and diversity.

- Clara Vegas (Miss Venezuela) +350 – The daughter of former Miss Venezuela 1990 Andreina Goetz, Clara is a graduate of USC and the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama and is a Venezuelan actress and model from Miranda, advocating for youth empowerment through the performing arts.

These are only a select handful of Miss Universe delegates, but BetUS has markets on several other competitors as well as a vast menu of entertainment and novelty props, including the worlds of music, cinema, politics, and trending topics around the globe.
