Latest Announcements

- Qatar Airways Group has appointed Mr. Hamad Ali Al-Khater as Group Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Al-Khater joins Qatar Airways Group from Hamad International Airport, where he has served as Chief Operating Officer. In that role, he was responsible for ensuring the safety and reliability of airport operations, while leading its strategic direction, operational excellence, infrastructure expansion, and the continuous enhancement of passenger experience.
- Qatar Airways' resumption flight to Canberra touched down on 2 December 2025, officially marking the return of its daily service to the Australian capital via Melbourne. Qatar Airways now operates a total Australian network of six key cities: Melbourne, Sydney, Perth, Brisbane, Adelaide and Canberra. The resumption brings enhanced global access, greater competition, and expanded travel options for passengers across the Australian Capital Territory and surrounding regions.
- Qatar Executive, the private jet charter division of the Qatar Airways Group, is proud to announce a major milestone in private aviation connectivity. By early 2026, every Gulfstream and Bombardier aircraft type in the Qatar Executive fleet will be equipped with Starlink, the world's leading ultra-high-speed, low-latency internet. Half of the Gulfstream G650ER's and entire Bombardier Global 5000's fleet are already operating with Starlink, delivering seamless, ultra-fast internet that allows passengers to work, stream, and communicate at ground-like speeds. All installations are performed in-house and will continue at record pace with all remaining G650ER's and the entire G700 fleet scheduled for completion by early 2026.
