Features & Highlights

From playful interiors to immersive guest experiences, Avani Frankfurt City Hotel celebrates the city's role as a pioneer of techno music in the 1980s when Frankfurt became a hub for influential night clubs, producers, musicians, labels and record stores.

Riffing on the theme, the hotel's shared spaces, amenities and experiences reflect this musical heritage, adding a touch of flair to Frankfurt's downtown area. The lobby welcomes guests with a dash of club culture, inviting them to explore and discover album covers and framed vinyl discs, while a faux fireplace, complete with vintage record player, creates a nostalgic atmosphere. The central staircase, wrapped around two giant disco balls, becomes an art piece with pulsating equaliser lights. The shared space is elevated by floor-to-ceiling LED screens displaying dynamic techno animations.

Gastronomy

The hotel's vibrant dining and drinking venues cater to guests' needs for simplicity and quality. The Pantry, Avani's signature grab-and-go concept, provides fresh snacks such as wraps, vegan bites, smoothies, Buddha bowls and matcha tea, complimented by 24/7 in-room dining for a wider range of options. At night, The Pantry becomes a lively spot to socialise and sip smart cocktails from the bar.

The breakfast buffet is quite the spread, with fresh coffee and juice, Germany's famous baked goods still warm from the oven as well as hot dishes from live cooking stations.

Experience

The hotel offers experiences curated in partnership with the city's leading creatives. Hosted by Entkorkte Kunst, guests can create art inspired by electronic music at a "Techno Painting" workshop fuelled by delicious cocktails and live DJ beats. The "Silent Techno Walking Tour" with Hush Beats is set to a curated playlist and takes guests to top city landmarks, such as the Museum of Modern Electronic Music (MOMEM). There are also scenic water bike tours to take in the "Mainhattan" skyline and smoked cocktail workshops that mix classic drinks with dazzling fire effects.

Meetings & Events

Getting down to business is a pleasure with Avani. Five meeting rooms, all with natural daylight, can host workshops and training sessions for up to 140 people. Avani Frankfurt City keeps the creativity flowing with imaginative coffee breaks, themed dinners, and team building on the town.
