Anantara Golden Triangle Unveils The Mekong Explorer Tent: Where Luxury Meets Adventure in the Heart of Northern Thailand

▲ The Mekong Explorer Tent at Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort

Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort unveils one of Thailand's most unique and luxurious stays - The Mekong Explorer Tent. The exceptional hillside retreat offers unrivalled panoramic views of Northern Thailand's breathtaking landscapes, serving as a serene haven for stargazers, nature enthusiasts, and intrepid explorers alike.

Located just 4 km from the iconic Golden Triangle, The Mekong Explorer Tent sits where the borders of Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar converge. Nestled in a 160-acre bamboo forest, the tent offers sweeping views of the verdant jungle, the mighty Mekong River, and the Golden Triangle Asian Elephant Foundation's 20 rescued elephants roaming below.

The two-bedroom luxury retreat is thoughtfully designed with explorers in mind, featuring a tasteful mix of leather, wood, and accents of Jim Thompson fabrics that exude timeless elegance. Handcrafted furniture and locally sourced amenities immerse guests in the region's rich culture, including locally made, sustainable teas from Sawanabondin, chocolates from Kad Kakao in Northern Thailand, homemade elephant shaped butter cookies, crispy mushrooms in collaboration with DoiTung, and a Praewa cloth bag, traditionally used by hilltribes in the Lanna region. Each spacious bedroom boasts an en-suite bathroom and oversized king-size beds for unparalleled comfort. Outside, two private terraces each feature a 5m x 3m infinity pool and an outdoor bathtub, offering a serene soak amidst nature.

Guests of The Mekong Explorer Tent also enjoy tailored luxuries, including an Explorer's Arrival via traditional longtail boat, a Sky Bike adventure, full-board gourmet dining, unlimited non-alcoholic beverages, a fully stocked minibar, and access to the Hall of Opium Museum. Additionally, each night's stay includes a choice of unforgettable activities, such as the Walking with Giants elephant experience, a Spice Spoons cooking class with a local market visit, a 60-minute spa treatment, or a private yoga or Pilates session.

The resort will further elevate its offerings with the introduction of the Mekong Explorer Suites. These suites, inspired by intrepid explorers of the Mekong River, blend Thai Lanna elements with colonial influences. Dark wood paneling, elephant-inspired décor, and antique-style travel trunks evoke a sense of tradition and adventure. Each suite features a balcony with jungle views, a cantilevered Thai daybed, a rain shower, a terrazzo soaking tub, and locally sourced amenities.

The Mekong Explorer Tent is part of the resort's array of unique luxury accommodations, including the Jungle Bubble and Jungle Bubble Lodge, which offer guests an unforgettable safari-style experience. Guests can dine on a private deck overlooking elephants and enjoy personalised butler service, two bedrooms, and a private plunge pool in these off-the-grid retreats.

Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort is renowned for its commitment to sustainable tourism and wildlife conservation. The resort provides sanctuary for 20 rescued elephants through the Golden Triangle Asian Elephant Foundation, offering guests ethical and educational interactions with these gentle giants. Guests can also enjoy world-class amenities, including luxurious suites, fine dining inspired by the region's three countries, a rejuvenating spa, and a 30-meter infinity pool overlooking the elephant plains. From birdwatching in the 160-acre bamboo forest to breakfast in the treetops with the Canopy dining experience, every moment at Anantara Golden Triangle is extraordinary. The resort also offers a truly sustainable experience. From the complete elimination of single-use plastic to a reliance on solar power, the resort is also home to its own farm, complete with herb and vegetable gardens, grey Oyster mushroom farm, bee hives, and free-range chickens.
