

Play, Pause and Recharge

Set between the Kalu Ganga lagoon and the Indian Ocean, Avani Kalutara Resort offers families an easy-going west coast escape where time together can sit naturally alongside time to recharge. While younger guests have their own space to play, create and connect at the Aliya Kids' and Teens' Club, parents can slow the pace with access to Anantara Spa at neighbouring Anantara Kalutara Resort, creating a family holiday that gives everyone the freedom to enjoy the stay in their own way.

At the Aliya Kids' and Teens' Club, younger guests can take part in a range of creative and interactive experiences designed to keep holidays playful and engaging. Activities include arts and crafts, group challenges, interactive games, outdoor play and nature-inspired experiences, giving children and teenagers opportunities to create, discover and make new friends throughout their stay.

Family time extends beyond the club, with a shaded children's pool, and activities around the resort adding more ways to enjoy the outdoors. Connecting room options, family dining and babysitting on request also help make stays easier for parents travelling with children, reinforcing Avani Kalutara's positioning as a family-friendly beach resort near Colombo.

When parents are ready to slow things down, Anantara Spa at neighbouring Anantara Kalutara Resort is within easy reach. Avani guests have access to a wellness setting with 6 treatment rooms, alongside steam rooms, a yoga pavilion and Ayurvedic treatments. The treatment menu brings together Asian therapies and holistic Ayurvedic rituals giving guests the flexibility to choose anything from restorative massage to a more personalised spa experience.

Wellbeing at Avani Kalutara can also be as active or unhurried as guests choose. AvaniFit, yoga, aqua-aerobics, swimming and time outdoors provide opportunities to move, while Anantara Spa offers a quieter counterpoint. This access across the neighbouring resorts is one of Avani Kalutara's distinctive advantages, allowing families to combine Avani's relaxed social atmosphere and children's experiences with the wider wellness offering of Anantara Kalutara.

Located within easy reach of Colombo and approximately 20 minutes from Bentota, Avani Kalutara Resort brings together family experiences, tropical surroundings and wellness in a laid-back river-and-ocean setting. Whether the day is spent at the kids' club, beside the pool, exploring the resort or unwinding at the spa, families can shape their holiday around what feels right for them.
