NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort, a premium resort in the southern Gaafu Dhaalu Atoll, announces the appointment of Keith Tomkies as its new General Manager. In his new role, Keith will lead all the operational departments and elevate the guest experience at the NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort.

Keith brings nearly three decades of hospitality experience to the Maldives resort, having led some of the world's most respected hotels and resorts. His journey has spanned the bustling cities of London, Hong Kong, Tokyo, Bangkok, Shanghai, Shenzhen, Guangzhou and Beijing, and the tropical shores of Penang and Sri Lanka. Along the way, he has held leadership positions with renowned hospitality brands including Shangri-La, Mandarin Oriental, Dusit International, Regent Hotels and Claridge's London.

Keith first joined Minor Hotels in 2024 as Cluster General Manager of the award-winning Anantara Kalutara Resort and Avani Kalutara Resort in Sri Lanka. Most recently, he served as General Manager, China Operations for Minor Hotels, overseeing hotel operations and development projects across the country.

Keith's arrival marks an exciting new era for NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort, one that promises exceptional experiences, meaningful connections and extraordinary memories for guests and team members alike.

On his appointment, Keith said: "I am thrilled to join the talented team at NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort and look forward to building upon the resort's strong reputation for exceptional hospitality. From Havodda's stunning house reef and vibrant marine life to the warmth and hospitality of its people, every day here reminds me why this destination is so special. Together, we will continue creating memorable experiences that connect guests with the natural beauty and authentic charm of the Maldives."

Nicholas Smith, Vice President of Operations, Asia, Minor Hotels, added: "Keith's strong commercial acumen, proven track record in operational excellence and regional market expertise will be invaluable as we continue to strengthen our presence in the Maldives."

NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort is located on a secluded private island 400km south of the capital city of Male. An isolated haven, the resort is completely surrounded by tropical greenery, turquoise waters and sandy beaches. The resort is home to 120 villas – 60 overwater and 60 beachfront – offering guests spacious, modern accommodations to unwind and feel the place. NH Collection Maldives Havodda Resort is one of Minor Hotels' nine resorts in the Maldives, giving travellers the choice of luxury, premium and select service resorts to match their desired experience.
