Aditya Saluja Appointed Commercial Director – mSpa and Wellness

Minor Hotels is strengthening its global wellness strategy with the appointment of Aditya Saluja as Commercial Director – mSpa & Wellness, reinforcing its commitment to delivering state-of-the-art spa and wellness experiences across its portfolio.

Aditya brings over 20 years of leadership experience exclusively within the luxury wellness hospitality sector. He joins from The Farm at San Benito, where he led commercial strategy and oversaw the property's integration into the Marriott Autograph Collection, driving international expansion and accelerating digital growth. Prior to this, Aditya played a key role at Six Senses Vana, India, where he architected business expansion across European and Middle Eastern markets. He began his journey at Ananda in The Himalayas, where he built his foundational expertise in wellness and contributed to significant growth across multiple business segments.

A tech-forward commercial leader, Aditya champions the use of AI tools to enhance performance, personalisation and revenue outcomes. His approach reflects a commitment to innovation, efficiency and measurable impact.

Beyond his professional remit, Aditya is a strong advocate for holistic wellbeing, incorporating practices such as intermittent fasting and functional movement into his daily routine.

Commenting on his appointment, Aditya Saluja said: “I’m excited to join Minor Hotels at a time of strong momentum in the wellness space. There is a clear opportunity to elevate mSpa and Wellness through focused commercial strategy, innovation and meaningful guest engagement. I look forward to working closely with the team to drive sustainable growth and deliver experiences that truly resonate.”

In his new role, Aditya will lead the commercial strategy for mSpa and Wellness, focusing on growth, innovation and strengthening the brand’s position as a leader in integrated wellness experiences.
