

Gerard Penning joins Chane Supervisory Board

Chane is pleased to announce the appointment of Gerard Penning to its Supervisory Board, effective 1 May 2026. Gerard will assume the role of Chair of the Supervisory Board on 1 July 2026.

Gerard brings extensive international leadership experience in governance and human capital, having held senior executive HR roles at Shell across its global upstream and downstream businesses. Most recently, he served as Chief Human Resources Officer at ABN AMRO.

Gerard Penning, Chair of the Supervisory Board

" Gerard has a unique ability to connect people, strategy and sustainable value creation. His expertise in corporate governance, organisational culture and leadership development, combined with his international experience, makes him an excellent fit for our ambition to further strengthen our position as a leading European provider of liquid bulk storage and to deepen collaboration across our organisation. "

Fabian Ziegler, CEO

Gerard's appointment marks an important step in Chane's continued development and supports the company's ambitions for sustainable growth and long-term value creation.

We warmly welcome Gerard to Chane and look forward to working together in the years ahead.

About Chane

Chane is a leading storage, processing, and logistics partner, specializing in forward-thinking end-to-end service offerings for bulk liquid products. The company operates 21 tank terminals with a total capacity of 5,6 million cubic metres, located in 6 European countries: the Netherlands, France, United Kingdom, Spain, Portugal, and Poland. Chane forms a vital link in the supply chain for a wide range of international customers. Linking forward.

Contact details

Jasmijn Stolk

Head of Corporate Communications communications@chane.eu
+31 682 990 558

Copy link

<https://newsroom.chane.eu/268204-gerard-penning-joins-chane-supervisory-board/>