

Grischa Sauerberg appointed Chief Commercial Officer

Chane is pleased to announce the appointment of Grischa Sauerberg as Chief Commercial Officer (CCO), effective 1 April 2026.

Grischa brings more than two decades of international experience across the energy and industrial sectors, including senior leadership positions at Shell. Most recently, he served as Chief Commercial Officer at Skeleton Technologies, where he played a key role in developing the company's commercial organisation and driving business growth.

His appointment reflects Chane's continued focus on strengthening its commercial capabilities and reinforcing its role in customers' supply chains as the energy landscape continues to evolve.

"Grischa brings a combination of commercial leadership and industry experience. His experience in building organizations and leading change will support our continued focus on customers."

Fabian Ziegler, CEO

"I look forward to working with the team to further develop our commercial capabilities and build long-term relationships with our customers."

Grischa Sauerberg, CCO

We warmly welcome Grischa to Chane and wish him every success in his new role.
