Wolt launches first-ever Michelin-star home delivery with Luxembourg's chef Julien Lucas

Luxembourg becomes the first country among Wolt's 30+ markets to offer home delivery from a Michelin-starred chef. In partnership with renowned chef Julien Lucas of La Villa de Camille et Julien, Wolt users can now enjoy an exclusive high-end menu specially curated for delivery under the brand "Signature by Julien Lucas".

The à la carte dishes, priced between €8 and €85, have been carefully designed to suit delivery while preserving the integrity, flavours, and elegance of a Michelin-starred dining experience.

"This partnership with Wolt is an exciting opportunity to share our cuisine in a different way," says Julien Lucas, chef of La Villa de Camille et Julien. "We have carefully designed and created dishes so that customers can enjoy at home the same level of refinement and emotion they experience in our restaurant. At the same time, I see accessible fine dining at home as an ideal gateway into this world – and we hope to welcome these customers to our restaurant in the future."

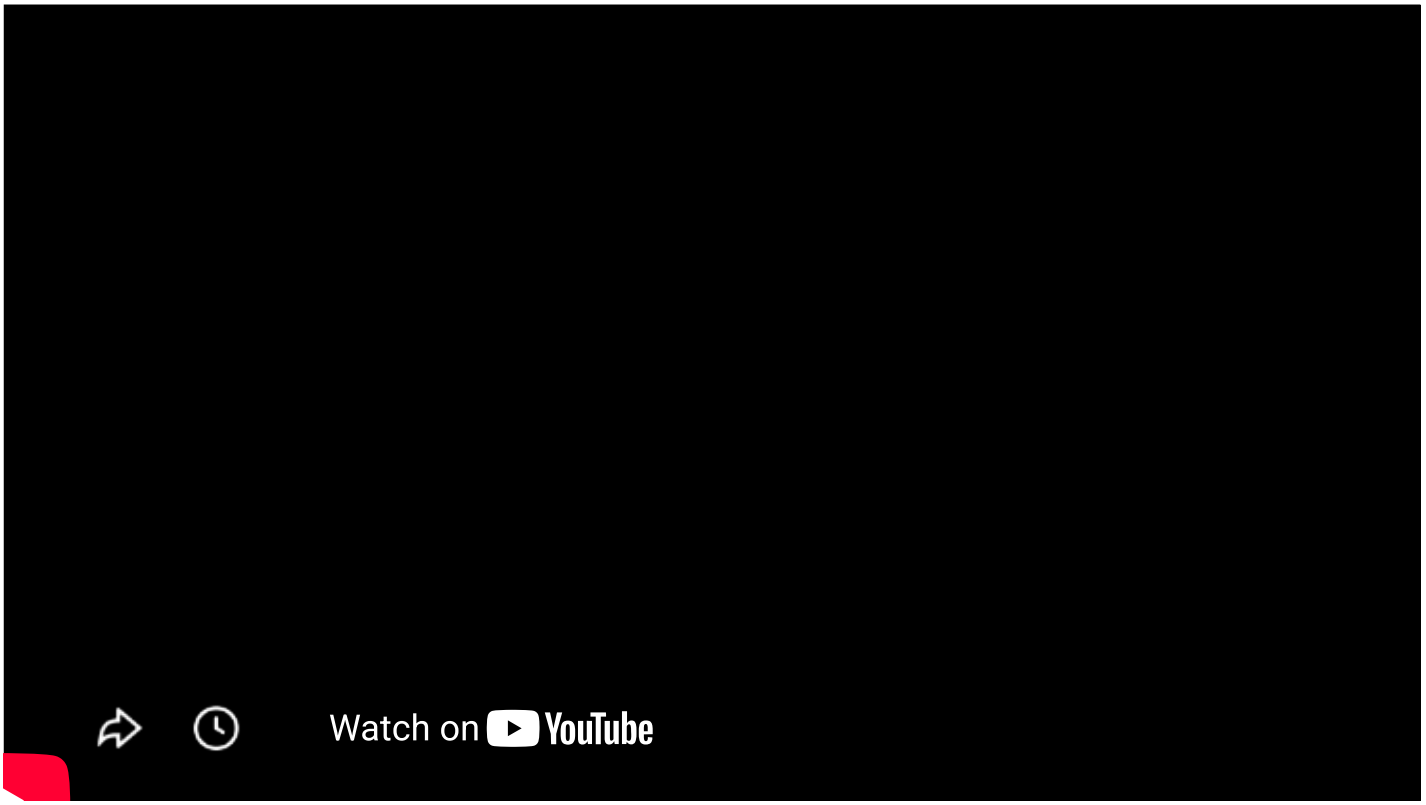

Chef Julien Lucas, who earned his Michelin star following a career alongside some of the most prestigious figures in global gastronomy – including Joël Robuchon, Bernard Loiseau, and Alain Ducasse – represents the fourth generation of a family of restaurateurs.

Together with his wife Camille Tardif, whose expertise was shaped within renowned hospitality groups such as Four Seasons and Relais & Châteaux, they have established La Villa de Camille et Julien as one of Luxembourg's most acclaimed culinary destinations. Wolt Luxembourg sees this launch as a key milestone in its mission to continuously enhance the delivery experience and expand access to exceptional culinary offerings.

"This is a milestone we are particularly proud of at Wolt Luxembourg," says Tomás Etcheverry, General Manager of Wolt Luxembourg. The collaboration with chef Julien Lucas allows Wolt to redefine expectations around delivery, delivering not just meals, but world-class culinary experiences.

"At the same time, home delivery does not replace the restaurant experience; it is a completely different moment, both in terms of cuisine, atmosphere, and service," Tomás Etcheverry adds. "Many of our customers discover new restaurants through the Wolt app, and we are delighted to introduce chef Julien Lucas's cuisine to a wider audience."

The dishes created by Julien Lucas are now available exclusively on Wolt for a limited time, inviting customers across Luxembourg to experience fine dining in an entirely new setting.
