The hotel

The NH Collection Madrid Suecia is located in the heart of the capital city, close to the famous Círculo de Bellas Artes cultural centre and Madrid's most original and upcoming neighbourhoods, including Chueca, Huertas and Malasaña, making it an unbeatable location for discovering one of the world's most visited cities. For shopping, the hotel's guests will find themselves close to the exclusive stores dotted along one of the city's busiest shopping streets, Gran Vía; for those who prefer to steep themselves in the city's fantastic museum offering, the hotel is close to two of the world's most important art museums: the Prado and the Thyssen-Bornemisza.

The hotel, which dates to 1956, is also one of the Spanish capital's most storied buildings. It is the work of the architect, Mariano Garrigues, who also designed the US embassy, among other landmark buildings. Its guest list includes visitors of the calibre of Ernest Hemingway, Che Guevara, Ernesto Sábato and Julio Cortázar, among other artists, bull-fighters and politicians.

Services and facilities

The hotel has 123 rooms, all of which are stylishly modern. There are premium and superior rooms, regular and junior suites and adjoining rooms which can accommodate two adults and two children, making them ideal for family travel. The rooms on the upper floors have panoramic views of the city.

They come with exclusive services befitting of the hotel's category such as ultra-comfortable flex beds, rainfall shower heads, Nespresso coffee machines and a teapot and 48" LED TVs.

There is a fitness centre with a cardio and body-building area for the keenest gym-goers. The establishment has a dedicated guest relations team to help guests throughout their stay and satisfy any need that could arise, from recommendations about what to see and do in the city to arranging laundry services.

Food and drink

For an even more memorable stay, the hotel has designed an exclusive gastronomic offering. To start the day with a healthy and balanced meal, the hotel lays out a buffet breakfast with a wide selection of freshly-squeezed juices, pastries, cold meats, cheese, fruit, yoghurt and breads, among other options. Guests can also order hot breakfasts and request an early breakfast at reception. On weekends and holidays, the rooftop serves an appetising brunch between 12pm and 4.30pm.

To continue to enjoy this choice culinary experience throughout the day, the NH Collection Madrid Suecia is home to Casa Suecia, an excellent exponent of Mediterranean cuisine. The dishes it serves stand out for the quality of their ingredients, framed by the utmost respect for what the sea and earth have to offer. Its tasting menu - God Save the House - includes delicacies such as a foie toast with violet-flower jam, roasted baby scallops, sirloin aged beef steak with pink pepper sauce and, to finish up on a sweet note, a chocolate cube with a crunchy inside.

The hotel restaurant has one of the city's most exclusive and sought-after rooftops, Ático Casa Suecia, located on the 11th floor. There, guests can enjoy all of the above-mentioned delicacies in a casual atmosphere while taking in unbeatable panoramic views of the city.

To end the day, what better than a cocktail in one of the hotel's best-kept secrets: the Clandestino Cocktail Bar. It is one of the Madrid's most exclusive spots, inspired by the Prohibition Era of the 1920s and, in honour of its name, this clandestine speakeasy reveals a secret that very few people know about. Its décor is inspired by the Art Deco movement, punctuated by red velvet armchairs and vintage tables with golden flourishes and a bar that features an altarpiece from a seventeenth-century French chapel.

Meetings and events

This establishment has three multi-purpose function rooms with capacity for up to 190 people, making it the ideal venue for business meetings, conventions and conferences. The hotel lobby bar and rooftop terrace make exceptional venues for cocktail receptions, social gatherings and informal afterwork meetings.
