
Media Kit - NH Collection Palermo Palazzo Siano

Hotel

Located in the vibrant heart of Palermo, NH Collection Palazzo Siano is a boutique hotel just steps away from the city's main attractions: Piazza Marina, the historic Porto della Cala, the impressive Castello a Mare, the lively Vucciria Market, and the Quattro Canti – also known as the “Theatre of the Sun” for its spectacular interplay of light. Guests can also explore Piazza Pretoria, set in the ancient Arab quarter of Kalsa, Palazzo dei Normanni, and the majestic Palermo Cathedral.

The hotel's convenient location, close to Palermo Centrale train station and within walking distance of renowned theatres such as the Teatro Massimo, Teatro Politeama, and Teatro Biondo, makes it the perfect base for discovering the city's cultural treasures. Shopping enthusiasts will enjoy the elegant boutiques along Via Roma and the nearby Rinascente department store, ideal for experiencing the commercial side of Palermo.

Services and facilities

The hotel offers 86 elegant rooms, where modern design blends seamlessly with the historic character of the building. Warm tones, refined details, and carefully selected furnishings create a relaxing and inviting atmosphere. Room categories include Standard, Superior, and Junior Suites, many of which feature charming balconies overlooking the streets of the old town. All rooms are equipped with premium amenities, including comfortable mattresses, high-quality linens, a pillow menu, Nespresso coffee machines, and NH Collection's exclusive toiletries. Some rooms retain original architectural details, such as vaulted ceilings or exposed stone walls, offering guests a unique sense of place while enjoying modern comforts.

Gastronomy

Set within an evocative courtyard supported by 18th-century columns harmoniously integrated into a modern glass structure, the hotel's restaurant welcomes guests into a bright, timeless space where charm, contemporary comfort, and a deep connection to Sicily's cultural and culinary heritage come together.

The menu celebrates the flavors of Sicily using high-quality local ingredients, striking the perfect balance between tradition and innovation, and enhanced by subtle international influences.

The bar area, located on the ground floor next to the lobby, opens directly onto Via Bottai, offering access to Palermo's "living room", a welcoming space not only for hotel guests, but also for locals and visitors looking to unwind with a drink in an elegant yet relaxed setting.

Meeting and events

Thanks to its strategic location, NH Collection Palermo Palazzo Sitano offers the perfect setting for small-scale business and private events. The hotel hosts “Circolo del Mare” meeting room, whose name reflects the city’s deep connection with the sea, evoking openness, connections, and new horizons.

This modern, versatile space can accommodate up to 56 guests in a theatre-style layout and is equipped with the latest audio-visual technology. An elegant, secluded, and quiet inner courtyard completes the offer, providing the ideal backdrop for networking moments, small meetings, coffee breaks, or outdoor aperitifs.

Every event is meticulously tailored by a dedicated team, supporting each stage of the organization – from coffee breaks and brunches to private cocktail parties and exclusive dinners – ensuring a truly bespoke experience.

