Hotel

NH Collection Taormina, an iconic hotel built in the early 20th century, stands in the heart of the city, just a few minutes from the ancient Greek Theatre. Its privileged position offers breathtaking views over Taormina and the coastline, from Capo Sant'Alessio to the Bay of Naxos. Just steps from Corso Umberto and the celebrated seaside promenade beloved by artists such as Fellini, Sophia Loren, and Alain Delon, the property remains a premier destination for discerning travellers.

Services and facilities

The hotel's 63 rooms and suites are elegantly furnished with fine brazilian rosewood and details in Sicily's signature colours, evoking its mosaics, ceramics, and volcanic stone.

NH Collection Taormina offers a complete range of services dedicated to relaxation and well-being. From the panoramic Zefiro Restaurant – occupying the hotel's top-floor terrace – to the poolside Lu Souli lounge bar, and the spectacular Fusion SPA spanning 260 sqm, guests can unwind and rejuvenate both body and mind.

Gastronomy

For a light lunch or a sunset drink, the Lu Souli bar and restaurant welcomes guests by the pool with a menu inspired by authentic Sicilian street food, made with fresh, seasonal ingredients. The offer includes a curated selection of wines, signature cocktails, granita, and artisanal ice creams for an authentic and flavourful experience.

The hotel's culinary heart, Zefiro Restaurant, celebrates the flavours of the Mediterranean with a traditional Sicilian menu enriched by contemporary influences. Located on the first floor, Zefiro serves as a meeting point between three ancient cultures, blending recipes from Sicily's rich culinary heritage into a harmonious whole.

During the summer season, Zefiro moves to the panoramic terrace on the seventh floor, offering guests an exclusive location with sweeping views over Taormina, the Sicilian and Calabrian coasts, Etna, and the Gulf below.

Meeting and events

NH Collection Taormina features an elegant foyer and three meeting rooms with a total capacity of 274 guests, ideal for business gatherings, private events, or weddings. Each space is equipped with the latest technology, ensuring versatility and organisational efficiency.

To make events truly unforgettable, the panoramic terrace overlooking the sea provides a stunning backdrop for receptions and celebrations with a view.
