Hotel

Set in the splendid setting of Piazza Carlina, in the vibrant heart of Turin's historic centre, NH Collection Torino Piazza Carlina is a true icon of elegance and sophistication. Housed in a magnificent 17th-century building, carefully restored to blend historical charm with contemporary design, the hotel is built around a historic courtyard, offering an intimate atmosphere suspended in time.

Its central location makes it the perfect starting point for exploring the city's landmarks, from the River Po to the majestic Mole Antonelliana and the charming Valentino Park. The interiors, defined by a minimalist yet cutting-edge design, strike the perfect balance between modern comfort and historical refinement. Adding to the exclusivity of the experience are two panoramic terraces that offer breathtaking views over the Turin skyline and surrounding hills, providing guests with a haven of peace and beauty.

Gastronomy

At Carlina Restaurant, guests can savour a selection of regional and Italian dishes reinterpreted with an international twist, served in spacious dining rooms featuring warm, elegant tones. The menu is complemented by a carefully curated wine list, ensuring a perfect pairing for every flavour.

The bar, overlooking the square, offers a refined yet relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a counter made of locally crafted wood by artisan Santo Cinalli, it is the perfect place for guests to unwind indoors or enjoy a moment of peace in the charming outdoor space after a day exploring the city.

Meeting and events

The hotel offers the ideal setting for hosting exclusive events in the heart of Turin, with versatile and functional spaces perfect for conferences, seminars, weddings, and private celebrations. NH Collection Torino Piazza Carlina features three state-of-the-art meeting rooms equipped with the latest technology. The main room can be divided into two separate sections; the San Massimo room stands out for its ancient mosaic flooring, inherited from a former church and decorated with floral motifs. For outdoor events, the hotel offers unique spaces including the historic internal courtyard and the panoramic terrace on the 4th floor, boasting spectacular views over the Mole Antonelliana.
