Hotel

In the heart of the enchanting island of Murano, set within the evocative backdrop of the Venetian Lagoon, stands NH Collection Murano Villa, an elegant four-star boutique hotel created from the historic “Fornace De Majo.” Once the beating heart of the island’s glassmaking production, this iconic property has been transformed into an oasis of charm and tranquillity - ideal for those seeking an exclusive stay, away from the crowds yet within easy reach of Venice’s main attractions.

This luxurious hotel preserves the original character of the former factory, enhancing its historic architecture through a harmonious dialogue between tradition and contemporary design. The setting reinterprets the spirit of the glassworks under a modern lens, ensuring a unique and comfortable guest experience. The original glass furnace chimney and exposed brickwork have been carefully preserved as a tribute to the building’s rich history.

The interiors showcase art pieces and artefacts connected to the artistic production of glass, arranged along curated exhibition paths that allow both guests and external visitors to fully appreciate their cultural and historical significance.

To discover the Lagoon and the magnificent city of Venice, exclusive waterbus transfers to the mainland and captivating guided tours can be arranged.

Key Features and Highlights of the Property

Designed to reflect the authentic spirit of the Venetian island, the hotel's 104 rooms and suites - some of which featuring beautiful terraces overlooking the Lagoon and the charming nearby islands of Sant'Erasmus and Le Vignole - have been carefully designed to create an elegant, contemporary, and welcoming atmosphere and enhanced by a range of premium amenities, including a coffee machine, a pillow menu to ensure optimal comfort, a flat-screen TV, high-quality bath products, and Wi-Fi access.

The hotel preserves historic architecture of the former glass furnace and comprises several buildings of varying volumes and forms, spread across an area of approximately 4,800 square metres. The property extends from its main entrance overlooking the picturesque Fondamenta Navagero, directly opposite the Glass Museum and the Cathedral of San Donato. This configuration ensures a high level of privacy within the rooms and in the outdoor common areas, including a charming courtyard square where guests can relax or simply take in the surrounding scenery.

The central courtyard of NH Collection Murano Villa, gives direct access to the nearby public Navagero park, which offers expansive green spaces and a children's play area. Finally, a distinctive private dock serves as a mooring area for boats and water transports.

The hotel also features a gym on the ground floor - open 24 hours a day and fully equipped for a comprehensive workout – and a Spa on the first floor, providing guests with a rejuvenating wellness experience tailored to relaxation and recovery.

Gastronomy

In the morning, guests can begin their day with a delightful buffet featuring high-quality ingredients, or enjoy made-to-order dishes. The hotel's gourmet restaurant, Antica Fornace de Majo, offers an elevated culinary experience where tradition meets contemporary expression under the guide of Chef Federico Ravot, Sardinian born and internationally inspired. Drawing from the rich heritage of the Venetian Lagoon, the menu is enhanced with Sardinian and Japanese influences, creating a refined balance of flavors and techniques. With a focus on fresh seafood and seasonal ingredients, each dish reflects attention to detail, authenticity, and creativity.

The captivating view over the lagoon makes the dining experience truly unique and memorable, ideal for a special lunch or dinner, a significant occasion, or a business event. Guests can also enjoy a drink at one of the two bars offering a curated selection of Italian wines, cocktails, and snacks.

Meeting & events

NH Collection Venezia Murano Villa features five elegant and versatile meeting rooms, designed to host exclusive events. These modular spaces, adaptable to a variety of requirements, can accommodate up to 130 guests, providing the ideal setting for corporate meetings, conferences, and private events. Each room is equipped with modern audiovisual technology and can be tailored with bespoke catering services upon request, ranging from refined coffee breaks, lunches or dinners served in the restaurant or bar areas. Whether for a business meeting or a special occasion, the hotel ensures that every event becomes a memorable experience, enhanced by its unique atmosphere and the enchanting backdrop of the Venetian Lagoon.
