Hotel

NH Collection Taormina, an iconic hotel built in the early 20th century, stands in the heart of the city, just a few minutes from the ancient Greek Theatre. Its privileged position offers breathtaking views over Taormina and the coastline, from Capo Sant'Alessio to the Bay of Naxos. Just steps from Corso Umberto and the celebrated seaside promenade beloved by artists such as Fellini, Sophia Loren, and Alain Delon, the property remains a premier destination for discerning travellers.

Services and facilities

The hotel features 58 rooms and suites, distinguished by an elegant design that reinterprets Sicilian identity through a color palette inspired by the island's natural landscape and decorative details that reflect its most distinctive elements, including handcrafted ceramics and volcanic stone.

NH Collection Taormina offers a complete range of services dedicated to relaxation and well-being. From the panoramic Zefiro Restaurant – occupying the hotel's top-floor terrace – to the poolside Lu Souli lounge bar, and the spectacular Fusion SPA spanning 260 sqm, guests can unwind and rejuvenate both body and mind.

Gastronomy

For a light lunch or a sunset drink, the Lu Souli bar and restaurant welcomes guests by the pool with a menu inspired by authentic Sicilian street food, made with fresh, seasonal ingredients. The offer includes a curated selection of wines, signature cocktails, granita, and artisanal ice creams for an authentic and flavourful experience.

The hotel's culinary heart, Zefiro Restaurant, offers a refined contemporary interpretation of Sicilian cuisine, where tradition and innovation coexist in perfect harmony. The menu unfolds as a sensory journey between land and sea, celebrating the island's rich identity through its finest ingredients, from Mazara del Vallo red prawns and Avola almonds to Cinisara beef and artisanal local cheeses. Located on the hotel's first floor, Zefiro serves as a meeting point of ancient cultures, where Sicily's inland and coastal culinary traditions come together in an inseparable fusion of flavours. During the summer season, the restaurant moves to the panoramic rooftop terrace on the seventh floor, welcoming guests to an exclusive setting with breathtaking views over Taormina, the Sicilian and Calabrian coastlines, Etna, and the Gulf below.

Meeting and events

NH Collection Taormina features an elegant foyer and three meeting rooms with a total capacity of 274 guests, ideal for business gatherings, private events, or weddings. Each space is equipped with the latest technology, ensuring versatility and organisational efficiency.

To make events truly unforgettable, the panoramic terrace overlooking the sea provides a stunning backdrop for receptions and celebrations with a view.
