

MEDIA KIT - NH MÁLAGA

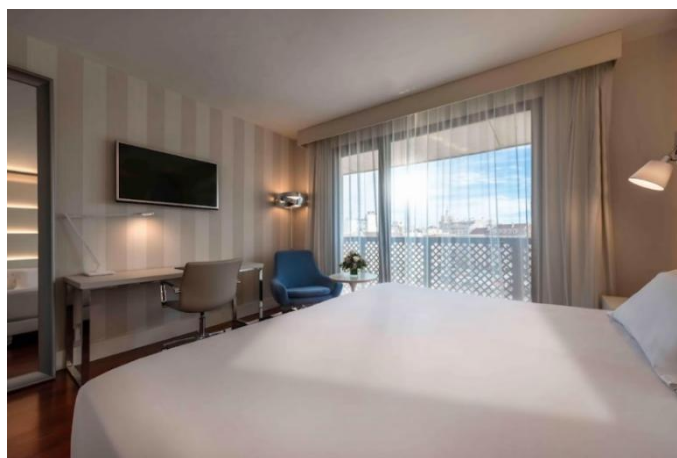

The Hotel

Just a few minutes' walk from the city's warm beaches and historic centre is NH Málaga, housed in a sleek and modern building that, following its complete renovation in 2019, has become the largest hotel in the city. Its central location, overlooking the Guadalmina River and the Church of La Esperanza, makes this property the perfect accommodation to enjoy the city's main points of interest, its shops and restaurants, and soak up Malaga's culture.

Services and Facilities

The hotel's 245 rooms are exterior, have soundproofed windows and are carefully decorated in an elegant and modern style. Of these, 115 are newly built and the rest have been completely renovated. For those looking for a totally exclusive experience, the hotel's Presidential Suite is the best option with 100 m2 and three private terraces. In terms of views, many of the rooms overlook the river, the Esperanza church or the city.

It also has a wide variety of facilities and services that will make your stay an unforgettable experience. The hotel has an elegant terrace from which to enjoy the Malaga climate and an equipped and modern gym open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In addition, its splendid outdoor swimming pool overlooking the city makes the hotel a perfect place to relax during the summer season.

Gastronomic offer

To offer an even more exquisite experience, the hotel has designed a very tempting gastronomic proposal. To start the day in a healthy and balanced way, guests can enjoy a buffet breakfast. This includes a wide selection of natural juices, pastries, cold meats, cheeses, fruit, yoghurts and breads, among other things. In addition, there is the possibility to create a vitamin-packed brick of juice, smoothie or fresh milk shake at the Fresh Corner. Guests can also order hot dishes, and if they have to get up early or leave before the buffet opens, they can order an early breakfast at reception.

On the other hand, the hotel's gastronomic offer stands out for its Tablafina restaurant. It is a unique gastronomic concept created by Abel Valverde with an informal atmosphere where you can have a drink or enjoy the complete gastronomic experience. The wine list, designed by sommelier David Robledo, will be the perfect accompaniment.

The restaurant, located on the first floor of the hotel, has a privileged location at street level. For this reason it is the perfect place: a completely refurbished space that boasts a bright and modern appearance, ideal for a lunch, dinner or a snack with friends. The concept focuses on the hallmarks of Spanish tapas: Iberian cured meats from the best designations of origin such as Guijuelo and Jabugo, among others, canned food selections from the best local producers, and a wide range of local products.

Tablafina bases its gastronomic proposal on local produce in combination with classics of Andalusian cuisine. It also offers different sweet desserts to finish with a good taste in the mouth. The restaurant is focused on the main protagonist, the product, which can be seen in the display cases that extend throughout the restaurant. In addition, next to the restaurant there is a cosy bar which is open from 8:00 to 23:30 and offers a wide variety of dishes and drinks, including local wines.

Meetings and events

On the other hand, the hotel offers a wide range of services for the organisation of large events and meetings. It has 14 rooms with a large amount of space, the Picasso room being the largest, with a capacity to accommodate up to 1,224 people in theatre configuration. Meeting planners can also avail of all the necessary audiovisual equipment and have the option of renting the hotel's indoor and outdoor terraces for private events.

In addition, the hotel also offers gastronomic services for all types of events, from coffee breaks and cocktails to business dinners and banquets, aspects to be taken into account in order to achieve the success and satisfaction of the attendees.
