The hotel

The NH Collection Granada Victoria, located in a majestic early twentieth-century building with an elegant classical façade, is an icon in central Granada. This hotel boasts a truly privileged location and is the ideal place for business travellers and indeed anyone keen to explore this special city's rich history and culture.

The hotel is located close to Bib-Rambla Square and its nearby little streets, an area full of boutiques and restaurants. This area, known as Alcaicería, used to be the Arab silk market and today is reminiscent of a Moroccan souk. Guests can dab in a spot of haggling while exploring colourful stalls selling rugs, lamps, brass goods, slippers, embroidered hats, spices and tea.

And just a 20-minute walk from the hotel, guests can glory in the Alhambra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Before or after that visit they can wander through the vibrant nearby streets filled with stores and restaurants, take a peek inside Granada's mighty cathedral or explore the Royal Chapel, which houses the mortal remains of Isabella I of Castile and Ferdinand V of Aragon, called the Catholic Kings.

Services and facilities

The NH Collection Granada Victoria has 70 modern and elegant rooms, many of which with balconies offering panoramic views of the city and the Sierra Nevada mountain range. Each room features Wenge wood flooring and bathrooms fitted with rainfall shower heads for maximum comfort and relaxation.

For those looking for a romantic getaway, the junior suite, with its spectacular balcony, is the ideal option, even for a honeymoon. The superior rooms provide direct views of the Puerta Real, or Royal Gate, which marks the heart of the old town, making them the perfect vantage point for the famous Easter processions.

Note that this hotel is committed to high accessibility standards and provides rooms adapted for persons with reduced mobility. And for families travelling together, there are also adjoining rooms.

Food and drink

The restaurant, located on the hotel's first floor, provides exquisite cuisine in elegant surroundings. The Granada sun bathes the dining room with natural light through its central dome. The décor combines the elegance of white shades with dark wood and fabrics in stone and blue colour scheme for a minimalist and modern look that is also warm and welcoming. The menu offers a contemporary take on traditional Mediterranean dishes that are ideally suited for pairing with the restaurant's fine wines. The restaurant also serves lunch on weekdays, offering set menus that combine the best of the local cuisine with midweek convenience.

After a delicious meal, guests can take it easy in the hotel bar, an elegant room decorated in dark wood and shades of pale green. Open daily, the bar offers an excellent wine selection and international menu, including salads, sandwiches and pasta dishes.

And to get the day off to a good start, the buffet breakfast offers a wide variety designed to please every palate, including a broad selection of pastries, freshly-squeezed juices, cold meats, cheese, fruit and breads. Guests can also order their favourite hot dishes and if they have to get up early, they can request an early-bird breakfast at reception.

Meetings and events

The NH Collection Granada Victoria has four function rooms with capacity to hold up to 90 people, making them ideal for corporate or social events. The hotel's team of experts can provide all of the equipment needed, including translation services and airport transfers.

The event catering options include finger buffets or light lunches and can be customised for each event. For more intimate gatherings, the hotel bar and the junior suite make perfect venues. The food and beverage team has designed a selection of special menus for events, from cocktail receptions to formal dinners, which can be personalised to suit any need.
