A unique 5-star experience in extraordinary settings

Minor Hotel's first five-star hotel in Denmark – and in the Nordics, opened in 2021 and has since delivered extraordinary experiences. The 5-star NH Collection Copenhagen is located in a unique historical and sustainable building in the picturesque district of Christianshavn where you can enjoy the vibrant city life of Copenhagen as well as exploring the many sights in this inimitable neighbourhood.

NH Collection Copenhagen offers a total of 394 rooms and suites, an amazing rooftop bar ROOF – Bar & Lounge, a hotel bar and 2 restaurants – one inhouse and Restaurant Nu&Da at the waterfront, lounge area with fireplace, valet parking, fitness facilities, and much more. 5 flexible rooms for small to large scale meetings and events and 2 additional exclusive boardroom meeting rooms serve as an inspirational location for meeting and events.

From the very moment guests arrive, they are met with personalized services by the specialized Guest Relations team, as well as historic artefacts of the location such as the architecture, and Danish design around the hotel. After a good night's sleep, guests are invited to enjoy breakfast in the breakfast restaurant with floor to ceiling windows, while slowly waking up with the rest of the city.

In the evening, you can dine at the NH Collection Copenhagen Bar & Restaurant serving a wide selection of classic dishes from the a la carte menu. The bar opens every day from noon, treating you with homemade snacks from the hotel's own pastry chef, cocktails made by the team of dedicated bartenders and wine curated by the hotel's sommelier.

From April to October the hotel also invites hotel guests as well as locals to the top of the hotel. Here, on the 8th floor, ROOF – Bar & Lounge not only serves the best cocktails, snack, bites, and desserts in the outside covered lounges and inside in the pergola, but also the best view of the entire city.

About

Location with balance of urban life and quietness

With the hotels' unique location by the water in one of the most loved neighborhoods Christianshavn in the Danish capital Copenhagen, NH Collection Copenhagen has created an exclusive oasis with room for both the vibrant city life and quiet, relaxing moments. The city's landmarks, cultural offers and shopping are all within short distance. Bikes for the entire family are available to rent, and if a calm trip on the water is more relaxing, the local harbour bus ferry picks guests up right in front of the hotel. The local metro station with a direct line to the airport (only 15 min) is located on a 5 min walk from the hotel, and if guests arrive by car, the hotel offer valet-parking as well as chargers for electrical vehicles.

Design and art

Nordic design with a focus on sustainability

The building's facade has been thoroughly renovated and redeveloped by ATP Ejendomme, Arkitema Architects and Henning Larsen Architects, with respect for architect Palle Suenson's original design from 1962 with clean shapes and straight lines.

NH Collection Copenhagen has high standards in sustainability. This is evident from the Green Key certification, the green sedum roof, use of seawater to cool the building, intelligent control of light and indoor climate and choice of sustainable materials. The property is the first hotel in Denmark to receive a DGNB gold certification for its renovation.

Upon entering, attention is immediately drawn to the modern chandelier and the large art-pieces by Danish artist Anna Bak. The artwork made of sustainable wood and brass, some reused from the original interior from 1962, refers to the building's maritime history, as a former administration building for the shipyard B&W. Additionally, artwork from Danish Julie Stavad is showcased in the hotel corridors showcasing suitcases in marble and ceramic purses.

The interior is inspired by the cosmopolitan atmosphere and Danish design. A warm, friendly, and eclectic mood is united with Scandinavian craftsmanship and exclusivity, using high-quality materials such as fabrics, wooden and brass details. The style is in warm shades with a Nordic expression, where attention is paid to details such as herringbone tiles, elegant colour play in the bathrooms and specially designed furniture throughout the hotel. The rooms offers large windows, which in addition to views, also provide a large and natural amount of light. The interior was designed by Swedish design firm Krook & Tjader and Spanish interior and architecture studio TBC, who has designed the interior for many other NH Collection hotels such as NH Collection München Bavaria and NH Collection Amsterdam Flower Market.
