THE CONCEPT

A TRANSFORMATIVE 'WHOLE OF LIFE' APPROACH TO WELLBEING.

In honouring the journey of life — marked by stages and chapters, Layan Life paves a multi-faceted path towards holistic health and happiness.

THE ELEMENTAL JOURNEY

Layan Life is immersed in the elements of nature - earth (din), water (nam), wind (low) and fire (fai). In the same moment these four elements are also our mind, body and soul, with a balanced interplay being fundamental to life.

THE LIFE METHOD

The 'Life Method' rests upon four primary pillars that enhance health and happiness.

Longevity Medicine - advanced diagnostics that inform a tailored plan of treatments for rejuvenation and longevity;

Traditional Thai Medicine - using herbs, bodywork and spiritual healing customised to each individual constitution;

Complementary Medicine - holistic therapies complement modern medicine for an integrated approach;

Lifestyle Medicine - practices that include exercise, nutrition, sleep, reduced stress, social connection and reduced harmful substances elevate health on all levels.

THE JOY OF CHOICE

Our founding principle is the joy of choice; to share wellness experiences with friends or family, or take time out for self. Embrace nutritious cuisines, activities and adventures. Rest and rejuvenate. Be guided and supported, or choose your own path.

FACILITIES

LAYAN LIFE FACILITIES

Resting on a calm reflective pond within a circle of lush green foliage, the Layan Life building complements the peaceful setting.

The (1,767 sqm double-storey) biophilic design is both rational and aspirational, simple and profound. A minimal organic aesthetic and colour palette offer the space to breathe, while glass walls invite an abundance of natural light into the heart of the space.

In complement to these indoor facilities, there are many options for outdoor activities and adventures, as well as three swimming pools and the sea.

Layan Life is central to all other wellness activities and options - allowing our guests the option to stay within a quiet wellness area or engage with the ‘whole of life’ at the resort.
