

Timeless Canal-Side Charm with Rich History in the Heart of Amsterdam at Tivoli Doelen

Standing gracefully at the intersection of history and luxury, Tivoli Doelen Amsterdam is a five-star boutique hotel set in a 17th-century historical building that has hosted royalty and artists for centuries. Nestled on the banks of the Amstel River in the heart of Amsterdam, the hotel invites guests to experience a unique blend of classic Dutch heritage and modern elegance.

Location and history

As the oldest hotel in Amsterdam, Tivoli Doelen boasts a rich past dating back to the 1600s. It has welcomed historic figures including Empress Elisabeth of Austria (Sisi), The Beatles as well as the famous Dutch painter Rembrandt van Rijn, whose most famous work, The Night Watch, hung in the property for over 70 years before being gifted to the Rijksmuseum.

Perfectly situated in the city center, the hotel is just steps away from major attractions such as The Rembrandt House Museum, the Royal Palace, the Flower Market, and the renowned shopping streets of Kalverstraat and Leidsestraat. With its riverside location and historical significance, the Tivoli Doelen provides an ideal base to explore the charm and vibrancy of Amsterdam.

Rooms and suites

Each of the 81 rooms and suites at Tivoli Doelen Amsterdam Hotel is a sophisticated retreat, many with stunning views over the canals and the Amstel River. The interior design draws from the hotel's heritage, combining classic Dutch aesthetics with modern comfort. Period details, elegant lighting, and luxurious textures create a warm, welcoming ambiance.

Select suites include private balconies overlooking the water or offering a unique city view – perfect for enjoying peaceful mornings or romantic evenings. All rooms are equipped with high-end amenities, including Nespresso machines, special Lalique cosmetic products in the bathrooms, and plush bedding for a restful night's sleep.

Among the most iconic accommodations are the Rembrandt Suite and the Empress Sisi Suite – the hotel's signature suites – which offer an extraordinary blend of refined luxury, spacious living, and immersive historical storytelling. These suites are a tribute to the two legendary figures who once called this building home, and are designed to transport guests into their worlds through thoughtful décor, exclusive views, and curated amenities.

Dining

In the hotel's signature restaurant, Omber, guests can indulge in a creative dining experience inspired by the works of Rembrandt. With dishes reflecting the colours, textures, and depth of his palette, Omber brings together art, storytelling, and flavour in every bite.

The restaurant's culinary philosophy is rooted in texture, light, conservation, and volume, mirroring Rembrandt's signature artistic techniques. Dishes are treated like compositions, blending local ingredients in layered forms and bold contrasts. Omber is more than a dining venue – it is a gallery of edible artistry where Rembrandt's legacy lives on through cuisine. The restaurant also features a vibrant bar and invites guests to a unique view overlooking the canal, making it an ideal spot for both casual bites and celebratory dinners.

Breakfast at Tivoli Doelen is served in the elegant dining space as well, offering guests not only a varied buffet with a selection of fresh pastries, seasonal fruits, and local delicacies, but also curated à la carte dishes to start their day.

Experiences

Tivoli Doelen Amsterdam Hotel prides itself on offering tailored experiences that connect guests to the city's rich cultural life. From Rembrandt inspired activities such as the Rembrandt Paint Making Workshop, private boat tours along the canals to curated museum visits and personalized city tours, the Guest Relations team is on hand to make every moment memorable. Seasonal offerings, such as the Tulip Experience by Vintage Car provide guests with unforgettable moments that celebrate the highlights of Dutch landscape and culture.
