PLAZA NICE HOTEL

The Glamour of the French Riviera

Welcome to Anantara Plaza Nice Hotel

The elegance of the Côte d'Azur and the natural beauty of the Alpes-Maritimes come to life in the luxurious surroundings of an iconic 175-year-old hotel. Anantara Plaza Nice invites guests to relax amid contemporary comfort and elegance.

Originally built in 1848 in a neo-classical style designed by local architect Jean-Antoine Scoffier, the historic property became the famous Hotel de France and hosted many artists and politicians, including President Point Carré in the early 1900s.

Now fully renovated by the internationally awarded David Collins Studio, local architect Jean-Paul Gomis and TBC Interiorismo studios, this jewel of the Belle Époque entices guests with classic French Riviera glamour.

Linger in sophisticated rooms and suites. Soak up the sun and sea breezes on a private beach. Savour exquisite flavours paired with unrivalled Mediterranean panoramas from the rooftop. A prime location in the heart of Nice connects guests to the best beaches, luxury shops and signature experiences.

Location

With its iconic Belle Époque façade facing Albert 1er Gardens and surrounded by the most luxurious shops, Anantara Plaza Nice Hotel enjoys an enviable central location in the heart of Nice.

Just a stone's throw from Promenade des Anglais, the beach and Place Masséna, this heritage hotel is the perfect base to explore the best the region has to offer – from the iconic coastal villages of Menton, Saint-Tropez or Èze, to the medieval hilltop jewels of Saint-Paul de Vence or Grasse.

Walking distance from the most emblematic lifestyle and cultural sites of the city and just a short drive from Monaco, Cannes or the slopes of the Alpes-Maritimes, Anantara Plaza Nice is conveniently connected to the Airport and Palais Nikaia by tram or a 20-minute drive.
