FLAMINGOS

This 18-hole course is the resort's original golfing green, and one of Costa del Sol's most picturesque. Views of the Mediterranean stretch as far as Gibraltar and Africa. The greens are generous in size while the fairways are slender, particularly on the first half of the course. Flamingos has hosted the European Senior Tour and Women's Spanish Open.

ALFERINI

Alferini enjoys a peaceful setting in a verdant valley surrounded by mountains. One of the few par-73 courses on the Costa del Sol, Alferini was designed by Spanish architect Antonio Garcia Garrido. The 18-hole course is considered technical – demanding length and accuracy – with long fairways and wide greens.

TRAMORES

Tramores is ideal for beginners or those wishing to perfect their technique, with a Michael Campbell golf academy on site. The 18-hole executive course at 3,468 m is fast and requires accuracy. Situated in a tranquil setting between two valleys, it boasts breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea.

Experiences

Exploration and discovery lead to unforgettable moments to treasure forever. At Anantara Villa Padierna Palace, guests connect to authentic Andalusian life through a carefully curated selection of experiences. Whether cultural, relaxing, adventurous or gastronomical, each experience brings this unique destination closer, creating an impact that lasts.

CARMEN, A BOUTIQUE OPERA

The magic of Bizet's "Carmen" fills the dramatic Roman amphitheatre at Anantara Villa Padierna with a reduced version of the operatic masterpiece. The boutique performance features its best-known arias and duets performed by the story's four main characters: Carmen, Don José, Escamillo, and Micaela, accompanied by the piano for an enchanting night of unforgettable music.

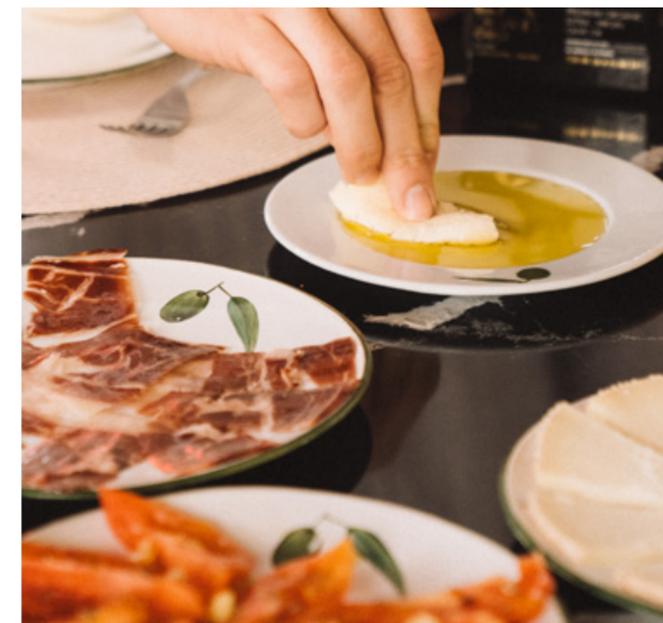

FLAMENCO NIGHT

Every Friday, an authentic local taverna in Benahavis comes alive with music and passion. Immersed in the cosy atmosphere, guests are swept away by the mesmerising rhythm of flamenco as they indulge in an enchanting blend of flavours, dance and music to find a deeper connection with Spanish culture.

THE LIFE OF THE SPANISH HORSE

In a unique natural environment declared a biosphere reserve by UNESCO, Spanish horses live in freedom, accompanied by the men and women of Andalusia who take care of them. This unique cultural experience offers an encounter with a charming and fascinating lifestyle.

EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL EXPLORATION

Unique in the world, this experience offers the chance to become an Andalusian olive grower for a day and uncover the secrets of olive oil production. Guests explore the farm, try out the techniques, taste the flavours and bottle their own extra virgin olive oil to take home and enjoy its many benefits.
