

Minor Hotels to Launch Australia's Largest Integrated Resort Wellness Precinct at Avani Cypress Lakes

The 340-acre Hunter Valley resort will combine flexible wellness, golf, family experiences and major meetings and events facilities

August 31, 2026: Minor Hotels, a leading global hotel owner and operator, has announced Avani Cypress Lakes Resort, a premium lifestyle and wellness resort set to launch in phases from October 2026 in New South Wales' Hunter Valley.

The development will bring together the existing Oaks Cypress Lakes Resort and adjoining Elysia Wellness Retreat across 340 acres, creating what will become Australia's largest integrated resort wellness precinct.

Avani Cypress Lakes Resort will be the largest Avani property in Australasia, offering 204 rooms and suites across two distinct accommodation experiences. Facilities will include an 18-hole golf course, AvaniWell spa and wellness center, 24 meetings and events spaces, two concept-led restaurants, a pool bar and all-day dining.

The resort's phased transformation will introduce three pickleball courts, an outdoor cinema, a pool bar with a DJ booth, Pilates reformers and outdoor cold-plunge pools. New dining concepts will include Chakraya, a restaurant inspired by the flavors and culinary traditions of Sri Lanka.

The resort will also offer a range of flexible packages for hotel guests and Hunter Valley residents, bringing together AvaniWell programs, AvaniKids activities, golf, hot-air balloon experiences and resort accommodation.

Craig Hooley, Chief Operating Officer of Minor Hotels Australasia, said the Hunter Valley had the attributes to become Australia's home of wellness.

"We believe the Hunter Valley has all the hallmarks necessary to establish itself as Australia's home of wellness," said Hooley. "From winery visits and long-table lunches to Pilates classes, cold plunges and educational seminars, modern wellness is personal, flexible and increasingly integrated into everyday travel.

"Avani Cypress Lakes Resort has been designed around this shift, allowing guests to incorporate wellness into a family holiday, corporate retreat, golf escape or weekend break. The launch reflects Minor Hotels' confidence in the continued growth of wellness-led and experiential travel across Australia, particularly in regional destinations."

AvaniWell to Make its Australian Debut

Avani Cypress Lakes Resort will introduce AvaniWell to Australia, following the concept's launch at Avani+ Hua Hin Resort in Thailand in 2024. Designed as a flexible alternative to the traditional wellness retreat, AvaniWell enables guests to incorporate wellness into a wider resort stay or take part in a more structured program.

The existing Elysia Wellness Retreat will be transformed into AvaniWell at Cypress Lakes Resort, integrating 70 wellness suites, a magnesium pool and 26 treatment rooms with 10

Pilates reformers, infrared saunas, outdoor cold-plunge pools and spaces for seminars and group sessions.

The facility will offer multi-day wellness programmes alongside individual treatments, classes and day-spa experiences. It will be accessible to resort guests, day visitors and members of the local community.

A Resort Designed for Leisure, Families and Events

Once complete, Avani Cypress Lakes Resort will feature Avani's global brand experiences, including flexible wellness programs, meetings and events designed to encourage participation and connection and AvaniKids activities centered on movement, creativity and time outdoors.

The resort will also strengthen the Hunter Valley's offering for conferences, incentives, weddings and corporate retreats. Its 24 meetings and events spaces will be supported by programs that can incorporate yoga, wellness sessions, golf, pickleball and outdoor activities into traditional business itineraries.

Rates and packages for Avani Cypress Lakes Resort will be available from October 1, 2026. The resort's redevelopment will be delivered in phases, with the first new facilities opening in October 2026 and completion scheduled for the third quarter of 2027.

Avani Cypress Lakes Resort will become the third Avani property in Australasia, following the opening of Avani Mooloolaba Beach Hotel in May 2026 and the upcoming launch of Avani Queenstown in September 2026. Together, the three properties mark a significant expansion of Avani's premium lifestyle portfolio across Australia and New Zealand.
