

Ann Schröder

Head of Legal & Compliance,
Lynk & Co International

Ann Schröder is the Head of Legal and Compliance at Lynk & Co, a position she has held since October 2020. In this role, Schröder is responsible for all legal and compliance matters, managing legal risks, offering strategic legal advice, and ensuring that all compliance programs support Lynk & Co's innovative model. Each of these fundamental responsibilities culminate in the brand's adherence to regulatory requirement and maintained high standards of corporate governance.

Prior to joining Lynk & Co, Schröder held several significant senior legal positions. She served as Director of Legal for Arvato's Collection & Financial Services in Finland and Sweden, and as Chief Legal Officer for Arvato Sweden. Earlier in her career, she was a partner at Wistrand Advokatbyrå in Gothenburg and worked as an associate at Norton Rose law firm in Hong Kong.

Schröder's deep legal expertise and strategic guidance are vital in ensuring Lynk & Co meets all regulatory standards while pursuing its innovative goals. Overseeing a strong team of experienced and talented legal professionals, Schröder's adept leadership helps the company navigate complex legal landscapes across various markets effectively, maintaining a strong commitment to compliance and integrity.
