

Beeline Velo 2 - New Stem Mount and Online Route Planner

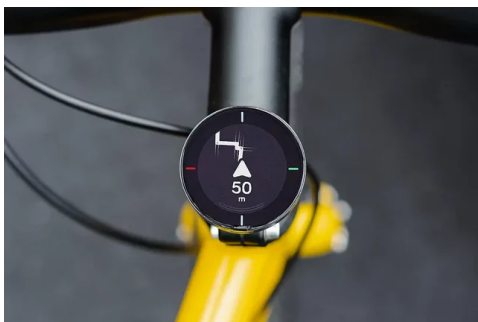

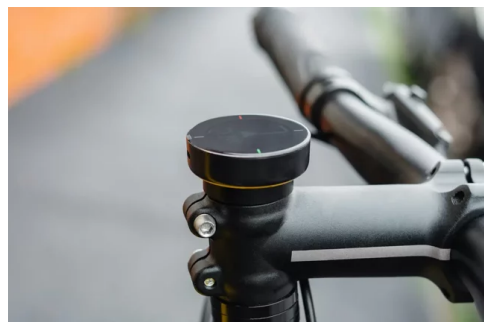

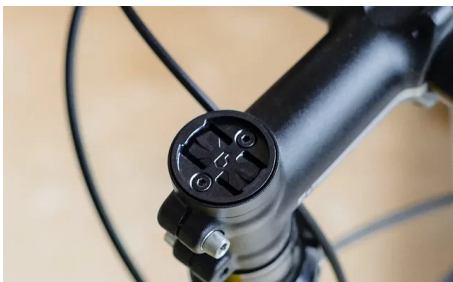

London, 07.08.2023 - The new Beeline Velo 2 Stem Cap Mount offers a modern and elegant look through seamless integration into the bike cockpit, while the Online Route Planner (beta) enables even easier planning, especially for longer routes.

Perfect integration for a tidy cockpit

The new addition to the Beeline product portfolio is the perfect complement for anyone looking for elegant integration solutions for a tidy cockpit.

The Velo 2 Stem Cap Mount replaces the stem cap of a threadless headset, allowing the Velo 2 to be integrated into the bike simply and elegantly. The mount is compatible with all 1 1/8 inch threadless headsets.

The new Stem Cap Mount currently costs £14.99 and is available worldwide through specialist retailers or can be ordered via the Beeline website.

The Velo 2 adapter insert is also compatible with Stem Cap Mounts, offering the option of using the Velo 2 device with third-party computer mounts such as Gamin or Wahoo.

The new adapter insert currently costs £9.99 and is available worldwide through specialist retailers or can be ordered via the Beeline website.

Details on installation and compatibility can be found in the Beeline FAQs.

The new Beeline Online Route Planner

The beta version of the new Online Route Planner is available! This additional planning option was at the top of the Beeline community's wish list. Made especially for longer tours with a higher number of waypoints or intermediate stops, the tool now gives users the option to plan their route conveniently on a desktop. The Online Route Planner can be used without a Beeline account but, if users have logged in with their Beeline credentials while planning on desktop, the planned tours are saved directly in the app profile and can be selected effortlessly when it's time to ride.
