

Beeline Velo 2 - New Apple HealthKit Integration

London, 20.02.2023 - The Apple Health and Fitness integration of the Beeline app now allows iOS users to seamlessly and easily transfer Beeline activities into their Apple Health health data.

New feature for the iOS Beeline community

The product development of the young team of routing and navigation experts at Beeline never stands still: the launch of the new Apple Health and Fitness integration allows members of the Beeline community who track their activities with an Apple Watch or via the Apple Health/Fitness app to automatically save this data on the platform.
