

SQUIER® BY FENDER® PROUDLY PRESENTS STRUNG OUT'S CHRIS AIKEN SIGNATURE BASS

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (Oct. 4, 2012) – Squier is excited to introduce the Chris Aiken Precision Bass® guitar. The signature model packs the Strung Out bassist and songwriter's hard-hitting look, sound and style into a formidable new take on the venerable Fender P Bass®.

The Aiken signature model features Strung Out's hallmark "Astrolux" logo on the front of the headstock and Aiken's signature on the back, and comes complete with a mirrored acrylic pickguard on an Olympic White body, 20-fret maple neck and fingerboard with white binding and white pearloid block inlays. In addition, Aiken's bass is powered by a Duncan Designed™ PB-105 Precision Bass pickup and includes a knurled chrome volume knob and "HiMass" bridge with brass saddles.

"I decided to make something that's really cool, that I like to play," said Aiken. "But, also something I want to give to the fans of Strung Out and any average bass player that wants to buy a bass – something that's simple, practical and plays awesome."
