

FENDER MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS CORPORATION APPOINTS CHRISTINA STEJSKAL AS CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Fender Musical Instruments Corporation (FMIC) today announced the appointment of Christina Stejskal as Chief Communications Officer. Reporting to Chief Executive Officer Edward "Bud" Cole and serving on the company's executive leadership team, Stejskal will lead Fender's global communications organization, overseeing brand, consumer and product communications, internal communications, executive and board communications, creator and influencer strategy, and corporate reputation.

About Fender

SYNONYMOUS WITH ALL THINGS ROCK N' ROLL

Today, FMIC brands include Fender®, Squier®, Gretsch®, Jackson®, Charvel® and EVH® among others.

An American icon, Fender was founded in Southern California and has established a worldwide influence that extends from the studio to the stage—and beyond. Everyone from beginners to the world's most acclaimed artists have used Fender instruments, amps and gear, making the company not only a revered industry leader but a cultural symbol that resonates globally. Nearly seven decades since founder Leo Fender built his first electric guitar, Fender's reach transcends instruments and accessories, encompassing a range of innovative digital experiences that fuel musical expression and serve players at every stage—on every stage.
