

EVH® INTRODUCES 5150 IIITM 50-WATT HEAD AND CABINETS

NEW EVH HEAD AND CABINETS DELIVER SERIOUS TONE, VOLUME AND PORTABILITY

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (Sept. 22, 2011) –EVH is excited to introduce the all-new EVH 5150 III 50-watt Head and its matching EVH 5150 III 1×12 Straight and EVH 5150 III 2×12 Cabinets, all developed to the exact specifications of legendary guitarist Eddie Van Halen.

Loaded with pure EVH sound and power, the EVH 5150 III 50-watt head is a smaller-sized version of its big brother, the mighty 5150 III head, with many of the same great features. Its smaller size and portability make it a perfect amp for players who want arena volume, tone and performance in a compact package.

The sonically powerful 50-watt head is a three-channel amplifier with channels one and two sharing EQ. Other features include the ability to accommodate MIDI footswitching, selectable impedance dual parallel speaker output jacks, effects loop, headphone jack, line out and black hardware.

The EVH 5150 III 50-Watt head works great with the current EVH 4×12 and mates perfectly with the EVH 5150 III 1×12 Straight and EVH 5150 III 2×12 cabinets. Enhancing its portability, the EVH 5150 III 2×12 cabinet features a head-mounting mechanism and tilt-bag legs. Both cabinets are rated at 16 ohms and are loaded with 30-watt Celestion® Heritage speakers.

The EVH 5150 III 50-Watt head and cabinets are available in black and ivory.
