

New Homes Available at Falls Grove by Pulte Homes in North Carolina Triad-Area

Single Family Homes and Townhomes in High Point, NC

Exceptional single-family homes and townhomes are now available at Falls Grove by Pulte Homes, in High Point, North Carolina. Located in the Triad area, Falls Grove consists of one-car contemporary townhomes, two-story/open concept single-family homes, and single-story ranch homes throughout its 27 acres.

“As one of America’s largest homebuilders, the Pulte Homes team is proud of our 70+ year history of building homes with the consumer in mind,” said David Carrier, Raleigh division president for PulteGroup. “With this foundation, we are delighted to be offering single- and multi-family homes at Falls Grove in High Point, with numerous retail, dining, and entertainment venues within minutes of our community. We invite you to visit Falls Grove to see for yourself how we integrate quality construction, thoughtful design features, and easy personalization options into a simplified buying experience.”

Affordably priced from the $200s, Falls Grove offers one-car contemporary townhomes, two-story/open concept single family homes, and single-story ranch homes. Amenities include a dog park, gathering areas, and a pavilion to meet up with friends and neighbors. As one of High Point's leading home builders, Pulte Homes offers new home construction with Life Test Home Designs® and flexible floor plans to help buyers build the life they envision in the Triad.

The community is conveniently located in High Point, off Highway 66 on the east side of Horneytown Road, just south of Hedgecock Road. Residents appreciate and enjoy living in the highly regarded Ledford School district and nearby access to Highway 66, I-74, and I-40. Downtown High Point is only 5 miles away, with Winston-Salem and Greensboro easily reachable as well, at distances of 15 miles and 23 miles, respectively.
