Pulte Homes Makes Bartow County Debut with Hamilton Place Community

National Homebuilder Brings Single-Family Homes to Cartersville, Featuring Innovative Floor Plans and Abundant Green Space

Pulte Homes announces its entrance into Bartow County with Hamilton Place, a new single-family home community in Cartersville, opening March 1, 2025. Set on 36 acres, the intimate neighborhood will feature 86 homes, with half of the community dedicated to preserving natural green spaces. The community is located directly across from Hamilton Crossing Elementary School and Park and combines suburban tranquility with convenient access to urban amenities.

"Hamilton Place represents an exciting expansion into Bartow County, where we saw an opportunity to create something special for families seeking the perfect blend of location and livability," said Chad Plunkett, Georgia Division President for PulteGroup. “The community's thoughtful design emphasizes connection to the outdoors, with tree-lined streets and sidewalks that make walking to school or enjoying an evening stroll to Hamilton Crossing Park part of everyday life.”

The homes at Hamilton Place showcase Pulte's signature More Life Built In® features, with floor plans ranging from 2,801 to 3,922 square feet. Homebuyers will find innovative designs, including sought-after owner's suites on the main level, gourmet kitchens, and abundant storage space. Select plans offer three-car garages, and all homes come with curated design packages to streamline the purchasing process.

Positioned just two minutes from Highway 41 and 12 minutes from I-75, Hamilton Place offers easy access to both Downtown Atlanta (45 miles) and Chattanooga (65 miles). The community's location puts residents within 10 minutes of The Bartow Marketplace's diverse shopping and dining options, while Historic Downtown Cartersville's charming boutiques and family-owned eateries are just seven miles away. Golf enthusiasts will appreciate proximity to both the public 9-hole course at Green Valley Greens and the 18-hole championship course at Cartersville Country Club.

The area continues to attract major employers, including Shaw Industries, Toyo Tire NA, and Anheuser Busch, while maintaining its scenic charm and small-town character. With home prices starting from $409,990, Hamilton Place offers an attractive opportunity for homebuyers seeking new construction in this growing corridor.
