

Pulte Homes Debuts New Model Homes and Sales Center at Mackay Pointe

Desirable Townhomes in Jamestown, North Carolina

Pulte Homes is pleased to announce that its model homes and sales center are now open at Mackay Pointe, a desirable new townhome community located in Jamestown near downtown Greensboro.

“Pulte Homes is delighted to be a part of the new home industry in the Triad,” said David Carrier, Raleigh division president for PulteGroup. “We are proud to be providing exceptional townhomes at Mackay Pointe in Jamestown, a highly sought-after suburb of Greensboro, with numerous retail, dining, and entertainment venues within minutes of our community.”

With designs ranging from 1,470 to 1,805 square feet, the modern townhomes at Mackay Pointe feature open living areas, flex spaces, and one- and two-car garages. The first homeowners have recently taken occupancy, with additional quick move-in home opportunities coming this summer through year end. Upon completion, the community will consist of just over 100 townhomes. Pricing begins in the low $300s.

Residents of Mackay Pointe enjoy proximity to retail, dining, and entertainment venues. The community is located near Guilford College Road, PTI Airport, Friendly Shopping Center, and downtown Greensboro.
