

Pulte Homes Announce 30 Coppersmith, a New Active Adult Community South of Boston

Pulte Homes has announced its newest Boston-area community, 30 Coppersmith, a captivating new condominium building designed specifically for the dynamic lifestyle of Active Adults and nestled in the charming town of Canton.

"We are thrilled to bring our innovative approach to active adult living to Canton," said Ashton Khoury, PulteGroup's Vice President of Sales for the New England Division. "30 Coppersmith offers a unique opportunity to own a brand-new home in a sought-after location, with Life Tested® floor plans and features designed to enhance the lifestyle of discerning homebuyers."

The community offers 63 beautifully designed condominiums for those 55 and older, each featuring a spacious, open-concept floor plan that allows for seamless living. Expansive windows fill the homes with natural light, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. High-end finishes add a touch of luxury throughout, and private balconies provide a serene outdoor space for relaxation.

Additional features of 30 Coppersmith include luxurious owner's suites, flex rooms that can adapt to the homeowner's ever-evolving needs, such as a hobby room, a home office, or a dedicated media room, underground garage parking, and elevator access.

At 30 Coppersmith, the benefits extend beyond the walls of the home. The prime location, situated just a quarter mile from Canton Center and the commuter rail, provides effortless access to bustling Boston and surrounding areas. Residents will enjoy the vibrant city life while returning to the serenity of their haven in Canton – the perfect blend of convenience and comfort.

Interest in this new community is expected to be strong, and potential buyers are encouraged to join the VIP Interest List at Pulte.com/30Coppersmith to stay up to date on floor plan releases, pricing details, and grand opening announcements.
