

PulteGroup Names Pablo Rivas Central Texas Division President

PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM), today announced the promotion of Pablo Rivas to president of the company's Central Texas division, effective May 22, 2023. Rivas will have full operational and financial responsibility for PulteGroup's homebuilding activities in the Austin market.

Rivas most recently served as the Vice President of Sales for the company's Georgia division, overseeing sales operations across the greater Atlanta area and expansion into the Greenville, South Carolina market. Prior to his position in Georgia, he was the Vice President of Origination at Pulte Mortgage, a subsidiary of PulteGroup. Rivas served in several increasingly senior positions during his 15-year tenure at Pulte Mortgage.

"Pablo has been an instrumental leader within our Georgia division, developing his sales team to consistently exceed their goals and collaborating with other operations leaders to improve all areas of the business over the last three years," said PulteGroup Central Area President Charlie Tipton. "His promotion is a testament to PulteGroup's commitment to developing talent and providing a path for growth. I am proud to welcome Pablo to Central Texas and look forward to his achievements and success in this market."
