A Special Home Dedication on September 11th for Fallen Navy Officer Russell Blake in North Carolina

As we continue to celebrate Military Appreciation Month and with Veterans Day approaching next week, we reflect on a touching Built to Honor journey. Follow the Blake family's story from when they first saw the land their new home would be built on, to the heartwarming Notes of Love, and finally the dedication and key ceremony this September 11th in Wendell, N.C.

We honored fallen U.S. Navy Petty Officer Russell Blake by presenting his family with a mortgage-free home, complete with rose petals raining from above and skydivers delivering keys to young Jayden Blake. Through interviews with family members and those involved in creating this special home, witness an unforgettable story of remembrance, gratitude, and community.

About Built to Honor®

For the last decade, PulteGroup's Built to Honor® program has recognized and thanked returning military personnel who have been injured during their term of service by providing mortgage-free homes to veterans and their families. Launched in 2013, the program has built and donated over 80 homes, gifting more than $30 million in value, across the country. Built to Honor works in partnership with nonprofit organizations to identify veteran candidates. For more information about Built to Honor, go to builttohonor.org.
